From the Amst. Cour. and Leid. Gaz, of Jan. 28. & 29.

Rome, Jan. 8.

THE Expreſs that was ſent to Prince Eugene of Savoy, to deſire him to deſiſt from his Demand of 15000 Piſtoles a Month of the Provinces of Ferrara and Bologna for Contributions, being return'd hither with an unſatisfactory Anſwer that gives little Hope of his moderating that Demand, the Pope was oblig'd to hold a Congregation of State on that Affair two Days ago, and by the Advice of that Congregation has diſpatch'd an Expreſs to the Court of Vienna, and the Abbot Riviere to Prince Eugene. The Pope has receiv'd a Letter from King Auguſtus, notifying to him the Concluſion of the Peace with the King of Sweden, and his Abdication of the Crown of Poland in Favour of King Staniſlaus. On Sunday laſt a Gentleman from Saxony brought the News to the Queen Dowager of Poland, that the 2 Princes her Sons were ſet at Liberty, and deliver'd to her 2 Letters from King Staniſlaus: Her Majeſty immediately communicated this News to the Pope, who has congratulated her upon it, as have moſt of the Cardinals and other Perſons of chief Quality, and on Monday ſhe caus'd Te Deum to be ſung for it. The ſame Day that this Expreſs arriv'd, the Biſhops of Warmia and Poſen had the Liberty of this City allow'd them; and a Conſiſtory that was held about thoſe 2 Prelates on Tueſday laſt, having agreed that they ſhould be ſet at full Liberty, the former of them was admitted the next Day to kiſs the Pope's Foot, and the other is to do the like aſſoon as he is recover'd of his Indiſpoſition.

Venice, Jan. 14. 'Tis advis'd from Piemont, that the French Governour of Suza apprehending he ſhall ſoon be beſieg'd by the Duke of Savoy, has already ſent away all his heavy Baggage to Dauphine; and that the Troops which were employ'd in taking Cazal, are march'd towards Maſſa, Final, and to the Blockade of Valenza. They write from Ferrara, that the Pope's Legate there was made very uneaſy by the Germans that are at Lagoſcuro, who ſtop all Wood for Firing, and Proviſions that are brought that Way for the ſaid City; that 1500 other Germans were advanc'd near to Cento; and that the ſaid Legate had given Order, in Caſe they approach Ferrara, to ſhut the Gates and diſpute their Entrance. Letters from Bologna ſay 1500 Germans are come to Caſtel St. Giovanni in the Bologneſe, and a like Number to St. Agoſtino. The reſt of the Imperial Troops keep in their Quarters about Cremona. General Medavi continues in the Seraglio; and a Party of the Garriſon of Cremona having made an Excurſion to a conſiderable diſtance from that City, return'd with a good Number of Cattle and 150 Germans Priſoners. 12 Cannon more are arriv'd at Modena, to be us'd againſt that Caſtle. The Duke of Mantua is hourly expected here. The Emperor's Commiſſaries have demanded 400000 Piſtoles of the Duke of Tuſcany, and 200000 of the Republick of Genoa, for the Fiefs they hold of the Empire.

Milan, Jan. 15. The Preparations for attacking our Caſtle are continued, but ſome ſay the attacking it is put off for ſome Weeks. The Emperour's Edict of Inveſtiture, by which King Charles III is declar'd Duke and Soveraign of this State, having been publiſh'd here, all the publick Acts will for the future run in his Name; and the Colleges and Burghers are to take an Oath of Fidelity, which is to be ſolemnly adminiſtred to them by that King's Commiſſioners.

Turin, Jan. 13. The 5th Inſtant the Marchioneſs de Prie went from hence with all her Family for Milan, to reſide there with her Husband, who in the Abſence of Prince Eugene commands in that Capital. The Marquis of Andorno, Son of the Marquis de Parella, is made Governour of Acqui in the Monferrat; in which Marquiſate 6000 Foot are rais'd for the Service of our Duke. The 10th 34 Pieces of Cannon, moſt of them having the Arms of Savoy on them, were brought hither from Cazal. The 11th Prince Eugene's Baggage arriv'd here.

Hague, Jan. 28. 'General Dopff having had ſeveral Conferences with the States Deputies, and receiv'd his Inſtructions, ſet out from hence laſt Night for Hailbron and for Vienna. The Miniſter of Portugal has receiv'd an Order from Lisbon to acquaint their High Mightineſſes with the true State of an Occurrence that happen'd in the Tagus, of which a general Account has been given in the publick Prints; viz. The Portugueze firing about 60 Cannon-ſhot from the Fort of St. Julien at 3 Engliſh Frigates that were going out of that River. The ſaid Miniſter reports the Fact to be this, The Court of Portugal had engag'd the Maſters of ſome Genoueſe Ships to tranſport Proviſions to Valencia, and had advanc'd them 400 Piſtoles on the Agreement: But after cool Reflection on the little Truſt that is to be put in that Nation, they alter'd their Minds, demanded their Money again, and on the Refuſal of the Genoueſe to return it, the Governour of the Fort was order'd to hinder them from going out of the River. That Governour ſeeing thoſe Engliſh Frigates under Sail, took them for Genoueſe, and fir'd to make them bring to and ſpeak with him. The Engliſh Frigates making the beſt of their Way without ſtopping, the Governour was the more perſwaded they were the Genoueſe, and cannonaded them: The Frigates ſail'd out of the River. Upon Notice at Lisbon of what had paſs'd a Memorial was preſented on the Part of the Engliſh, in which was a Paſſage to this purpoſe, That they took that Cannonading for a Declaration of War. The Court had more Flegm, and return'd an Anſwer to the Memorial, without taking any Notice of that Paſſage: They only ſaid, That they were ſorry the Governour had made ſuch a Miſtake, and that they had caus'd him to be taken into Cuſtody immediately, in Order to his making proper Satisfaction: That in the mean Time they demanded Satisfaction on their ſide, for the Contempt ſhewn by the Frigates in not bringing to, when according to Cuſtom they were warn'd by the Cannon. 'Tis not to be ſuppos'd an Affair, which according to the Repreſentation made of it by the Court of Portugal, had no Malice or Deſign in it, can have bred any ill Blood between them and the Allies, as the Enemies of the common Cauſe have been forward to ſuggeſt. That the ſaid Court may have no juſt Ground of Complaint on their ſide, the States intend to pay the Subſidies due to them. The Council of State having preſented to the States General a Petition for 3 Million, Subscriptions have already been open'd for borrowing for the present on third of that Sum, and were immediately fill'd. This and other Instances of their earnest Application to the War, are no manner of Indication of the secret Negociations which some forreign Ministers have fancied to be carrying on here for Peace. The Emissaries of France are not wanting to endeavour to sow Seeds of Division among the Allies by insinuating that there are such Negociations; nor do they take less Pains to render the goodIntentions of theKing of Sweden suspected. But these Shifts and Artifices of France are treated here with Contempt; and we have Advice, that that Court having desir'd the King of Sweden to offer his Mediation of a general Peace, his Swedish Majesty answer'd, that he could not take such an Office upon himself, unless at the Desire of all the Potentates concern'd in this War.
